0240-3-16-.01 INSTITUTION POLICY STATEMENT.

- (1) College students are citizens of the state, local and national governments, and of the academic community. As such, they are expected to conduct themselves as law-abiding members of each community at all times. Admission to an institution of higher education carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students. In recognition of the special relationship that exists between the institution and the academic community which it seeks to serve, the Tennessee Board of Regents has authorized the President of the College to take actions as may be necessary to maintain campus conditions and preserve the integrity of the institution and its educational environment.
- (2) Pursuant to this authorization, the College has developed the following Regulations that are intended to govern student conduct on the campus. In addition, students are subject to all federal, state, and local laws and ordinances. If a student's violation of such laws or ordinances also adversely affects the institution's pursuit of its educational objectives, the institution may enforce its own regulations regardless of any proceedings instituted by other authorities. Conversely, violation of any section of these Regulations may subject a student to sanctions by the institution whether or not such conduct is simultaneously violative of state, local, or federal laws. Additionally, all allied health and nursing students are subject to alcohol and drug testing as required by clinical agencies or under "reasonable suspicion testing" as stated in each allied health and nursing program handbook.

Authority: T.C.A. §49-8-203. Administrative History: Repeal of all rules by Public Chapter 261; effective July 1, 1983. New rule filed April 28, 1983; effective July 13, 1983.
